N Korea tests short-range missiles as S Korea, US conduct drills

REUTERS Seoul/Washington, August 26
NORTH KOREA FIRED several short-range missiles into the sea off its east coast early on Saturday, South Korea and the US military said, as the two allies conducted annual joint military drills that the North denounces as preparation for war. The US military's Pacific Command said it had detected three short-range ballistic missiles, fired over a 20-minute period.
One appeared to have blown up almost immediately while two flew about 250 km (155 miles) in a northeasterly direction, Pacific Command said, revising an earlier assessment that two of the missiles had failed in flight. The test came just days after senior US officials praised North Korea and leader Kim Jong Un for showing restraint in not firing any missiles since late July.

The South Korean Office of the Joint Chiefs of Staff said the projectiles were launched from the North's eastern Kangwon province into the sea. Later on Saturday, the South Korean Presidential Blue House said the North may have fired an upgraded 300-mm calibre multiple rocket launcher but the military was still analysing the precise details of the projectiles. Pacific Command said the missiles did not pose a threat to the US mainland or to the Pacific territory of Guam, which North Korea had threatened earlier this month to surround in a "sea of fire". Tensions had eased somewhat since a harsh exchange of words between Pyongyang and Washington after US President Donald Trump had warned North Korean leader Kim Jong Un he would face "fire and fury" if he threatened the United States.

Eight security men killed in J&K Pulwama attack

PRESSTRUST OF INDIA Srinagar, August 26

EIGHT SECURITY PERSONNEL, including four CRPF men, were killed when militants carried out a suicide attack on a district police complex in south Kashmir's Pulwama on Saturday. The attack triggered a massive gunfight, in which the three terrorists were killed. The terror strike took place at the crack of dawn, when the militants, believed to be foreign mercenaries, entered the police complex in the worst-hit Pulwama district, 25 km from here. Police, CRPF and Army personnel quickly swung into action and cornered the militants and ensured family members of the police personnel living within the complex were taken out to safety. By afternoon, the security personnel neutralised one of the three terrorists, while another militant's body was recovered after 5 pm, officials said, adding the firing had stopped and the third body would be recovered soon.

The militants had entrenched themselves in all the three blocks of the police complex and were firing at the approaching troops, they said. JS Sandhu, general officer commanding of Srinagar-based XV Corps, said it was a "fidayeen" (suicide) attack. Among those killed, four were from the CRPF, one was constable of the Jammu and Kashmir Police and three were special police officers working with the state police. Two of the four CRPF personnel were killed at the fag end of the operation, when they were defusing one of the improvised explosive devices planted by the militants.

Kuroda vows to maintain very accommodative policy

BLOOMBERG August 26

BANK OF JAPAN governor Haruhiko Kuroda said the recent pace of growth in the world's third-largest economy is probably unsustainable and pledged to continue with very accommodative monetary policy "for some time" because the BOJ is far from its inflation target. "I think 4% growth is excellent but we don't think 4% growth can be sustained. Around 2% growth is likely," Kuroda said in an interview on Bloomberg Television recorded on Friday in Jackson Hole, Wyoming. "I think for some time we have to continue this extremely accommodative monetary policy." The BOJ chief, who joined Federal Reserve chair Janet Yellen and European Central Bank president Mario Draghi at the mountain retreat for an annual gathering monetary policy makers, said he's watching moves by global colleagues but added that BOJ policy has to be aimed at conditions in Japan. "The economic and price situation in the US is much, much better than the situation in Japan," Kuroda said in the interview, which will be broadcast at 6 pm New York time on Sunday. Kuroda noted that Japanese businesses and labour unions still exhibit a "deflationary mindset," which is crimping price gains.
